

WHY WE LOSE OUR SIGHT!
Two Expert Oculists on Eye Troubles and Their Cures
IN THE NEXT SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch

VOL. 40.—NO. 263.

ST. LOUIS, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 12, 1889.

"GUIDE" WILL DISCUSS
Horns and Holes in the West
SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.
BY MAIL, TWENTY CENTS A WEEK.

Sonnenfeld's

ONLY ONE DAY MORE IN FAMOUS BUILDING.

To-morrow is our last day in Famous Building. Monday we will open our magnificent new store next door to our present quarters.

We are determined not to move a dollar's worth of old goods if possible.

Everything Must be Sold To-Morrow—Saturday—At Any Price.

It is impossible for us to quote any particular line as our stocks are so badly broken up; but what we have left in the following goods will positively be slaughtered:

Ladies' Hats for Almost Nothing.

Flowers Almost Given Away.

Laces at Your Own Prices.

Gloves and Mitts for Almost Nothing.

Hankiehiefs for Almost Nothing.

Corsets at Your Own Price.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear Almost Given Away.

Embroideries for Almost Nothing.

Ladies' Collars and Cuffs for Almost Nothing.

Ribbons for Almost Nothing.

Remember this is positively our last day in Famous Building. Everything must be sold.

SONNENFELD'S
IN FAMOUS BUILDING.

ESTABLISHED, 1858. No 1093 Is OUR TELEPHONE
CALL US UP

When you want an estimate on Decorating your House.

J. L. ISAACS
WALL PAPER CO.
Excelsior Bldg. 1210 OLIVE ST.,
WOOD CARPETS!
WIRE SCREENS!

CONSUMPTION
No Longer an Incurable Disease.

A new method by Dr. LOUIS Weisert, Berlin, Germany, for treating consumption by inhalation of SUPERHEATED DRY AIR. Ask your physician in regard to its merits. Send for circulars describing the apparatus.

A. S. ALOE & CO., Sole Agents,
SURGICAL INSTRUMENT MAKERS.

$8.00 FOR FINEST
SEERSUCKER
COATS AND VESTS.

$12 for Full Suits, selected from BEST EAST INDIA SEERSUCKERS that are imported, made and finished better than any merchant tailors can produce them.

No summer fabrics will wash and wear equal to them.

Our Furnishing Goods Department

Is just booming on account of the GREAT BARGAINS we are showing in LIGHT WEIGHT GARMENTS for this HOT WEATHER.

UNDERWEAR, in Balbriggan, Lisle Thread, Gauze, Nainsook and Merino.

MEN'S FLANNEL SHIRTS, 12 1/2 inch to 21 inch neck-band, 50c to $4.

FANCY HOSIERY, 25c quality reduced to 16 2/3c, or $1 box. COLORS FAST.

If you want anything in this line call and see us. We carry the largest stock in the city, and lowest prices.

BROWNING, KING & CO.,
Corner Broadway and Pine.

RECEIVED TO-DAY: Huyler's Fresh Candies!

MELLIER DRUG CO.,
518 Olive St.

The Old Guard, Sanford's Ginger

With simplest vigilance Sanford's Guards the home against a thousand dangers that live in air, water, food, and climate. Never has it been found wanting in any emergency, and hence it has become enshrinéd in countless homes as the realization of all that is preventive and curative in medicine, surgery, and dentistry. Indispensable in the household it can never be dispensed with. It is known best advertisement. Thousands say daily, "Give SANFORD'S GINGER; it is the best of all gingers."

Composed of imported ginger, choice aromatics, and the best of medicinal French Brandy, SANFORD'S GINGER is vastly superior to all other gingers, and should be exercised in purchasing, lest some cheap, worthless, and often dangerous ginger be substituted. Ask for

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness in behalf of the Times and all the men who had passed before him, himself and the Times' agents, America and Ireland. Attorney-General Webster declined to allow Mr. Soames to produce the documents which he had brought with him. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron. There was no definite arrangement as to how witness should sue him. Already several payments had been made to him. Miss Maud, manager of the Times, was understood that Le Caron would be proved for. He had given his name to the Times' agents. As long as it was needed, he was to receive assistance.

Mr. Houston, Secretary of the Loyal and Patriotic Union, was then recalled and re-examined. He testified that Lord Lionel, a witness he had made to, was a useful witness. The articles on "Parnellian and Crime," published by the Times were an effort to discredit Parnell, and the article which was compiled by Piggott and for which witness paid $20. Witness stated that he was willing to place the books before the Lord Lionel and the Patriotic Union before the court, but he objected to their being examined by the political opponents of the Times. He had been asked to withdraw his name from the list of witnesses. He testified that he had not made out a list of the payments made to the witnesses. He could not say whether he had ever corresponded with Le Caron

SULLIVAN BOUND NORTH,

RELEASED AT NASHVILLE, HE IMMEDIATELY STARTS FOR CANADA.

A Writ of Habeas Corpus Deprives the Tennessee Authorities of the Champion's Society—The Cincinnati Authorities Given the Slip by the Kilrain Party—Dan and Charlie Daly on the Fight.

Dan and Charley Daly returned last night from New Orleans. Both are staunch admirers of John L. and backed him to win the fight. Kilrain stands punishment better than any man I ever saw and is a clean and game pugilist, but he was never in this fight from the start. It was Sullivan's fight all the way through. Kilrain is a good wrestler and as clever a sparring as I ever saw, but let me tell you none of them is any more soled than with their hands than the big fellow. I never behold a picture of perfect manhood until I see him stripped in that ring. Kilrain is a nice fellow, and acts like a gentleman. Both of them seemed determined to have the fight out in a square, gentlemanly manner, and they did so. At times when Kilrain was dropping to avoid punishment Sullivan would say, "And you are the champion of the world?" and make other remarks of that sort, but as a rule he took things remarkably cool and would laugh at the remarks. He did not speak to his corner who would say, "How can a man like that who won't stand up and fight?" Sullivan displayed great judgment in the ring, after it, he spoke very kindly of Kilrain, but was bitter against Fox. That drunk he was up after the fight, and I did not see him again. He did not, but did not do all the things claimed. He spent his money like water. Returning home in the dark he got lost and got into a wayward Irish come-alive, which he always enjoys hugely. Sullivan will never fight again. He told me most positively that this was the last fight.

"I was never more surprised in a man in my life than I was in Sullivan," remarked Charles Daly, "he was a hellion before he became the greatest fighter living, but the coolness and generalship he displayed in this fight were a revelation." "A man can use better judgment. Sullivan picked up some flesh after his arrival in New Orleans, and would have had a fit if he had not been out impairing his condition any, yet he showed wonderful strength and endurance. He is a fine fellow, and I think he is using every good judgment and his tactics were legitimate. Sullivan would seek him if he won, but I don't think he would get him. Several times Sullivan asked the referee if he couldn't make Kilrain fight him, but of course the referee said no. The crowd would call Kilrain a cur, the big fellow would call his hands to them to stop the crowd, and the referee would insist that he didn't stop him." A fairer fighter than Sullivan never lived. In the break-away fight he was a pugilist, Kilrain a boxer, and made a good show. Kilrain got to him until they were separated. Once Kilrain struck at him as they were breaking away. It did not hit him, but he did not notice it, merely jumped back and clapped his hands a little, saying, "That's good, boy." Then Kilrain struck him four or five times, biting him below the belt, but the referee would insist that it was not foul. Sullivan was determined that the fight should be won on its merits regardless of technicalities. If he had not been so good a boxer he would have won and fought instead of adopting Mitchell's tactics as he should all have sent home after the fight. He is a good boxer, and has a good long fight. The story of Sullivan agreed to Mitchell to make a present to Kilrain, and he did not do it. Instant Mitchell made the proposition Charley Johnson yelled so as to be heard three blocks away. "No, no; we want to be even with Kilrain, and we want this battle fought to a finish." Who wants this battle fought to a finish? Who, no one had any time to say they would make Kilrain fight him. They would have known that it would have ruined him. Those people would declare that it was a compromise, and as far as I am concerned it was a good and the top off his draw with Mitchell would have ruined him. Donovan, who wanted to end the fight, said, "It is a great fight, but Kilrain is a hellion." Kilrain was almost completely covered with bruises, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he could move. He was sent to the hospital and purchased. Soon after the arrival of the party Sheriff Smith began making preparations to go to the scene of the fight. He was sent to Sheriff's intentions. He sent Johnny Murphy out to get a hack, and when it arrived the driver asked him where he was going. Entering the carriage he said, "To the station." Persons who followed the carriage say it went towards Shreveport, and it is surmised that he was going to the station to strike the Fly Four Railroad there. When Sheriff Smith learned of the escape of the fugitive he sent a telegram to Governor, asking if there was any reward offered for the arrest of the party. The reward was $1,000.

After Kilrain.
COLUMBUS, O., July 12.—Kilrain, and his party, consisting of Charley Mitchell, Pony Moore and Johnny Murphy arrived in Columbus at 5:30 o'clock last evening and went to Bissell's Hotel. They were followed by a crowd of reporters and spectators. Kilrain merely jumped back and clapped his hands a little, saying, "That's good, boy." Then Kilrain struck him four or five times, biting him below the belt, but the referee would insist that it was not foul. Sullivan was determined that the fight should be won on its merits regardless of technicalities. If he had not been so good a boxer he would have won and fought instead of adopting Mitchell's tactics as he should all have sent home after the fight. He is a good boxer, and has a good long fight. The story of Sullivan agreed to Mitchell to make a present to Kilrain, and he did not do it. Instant Mitchell made the proposition Charley Johnson yelled so as to be heard three blocks away. "No, no; we want to be even with Kilrain, and we want this battle fought to a finish." Who wants this battle fought to a finish? Who, no one had any time to say they would make Kilrain fight him. They would have known that it would have ruined him. Those people would declare that it was a compromise, and as far as I am concerned it was a good and the top off his draw with Mitchell would have ruined him. Donovan, who wanted to end the fight, said, "It is a great fight, but Kilrain is a hellion." Kilrain was almost completely covered with bruises, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he could move. He was sent to the hospital and purchased. Soon after the arrival of the party Sheriff Smith began making preparations to go to the scene of the fight. He was sent to Sheriff's intentions. He sent Johnny Murphy out to get a hack, and when it arrived the driver asked him where he was going. Entering the carriage he said, "To the station." Persons who followed the carriage say it went towards Shreveport, and it is surmised that he was going to the station to strike the Fly Four Railroad there. When Sheriff Smith learned of the escape of the fugitive he sent a telegram to Governor, asking if there was any reward offered for the arrest of the party. The reward was $1,000.

Instant Mitchell.
A large crowd was organized, with Sheriff Smith in command, and the party started for the station. The posse is prepared for any resistance that may be offered.

A New York (Ind.) despatch says that Kilrain boarded a train there at midnight bound for Cincinnati.

How Muldoon Escaped Arrest.
CHICAGO, July 12.—An Associated Press reporter on his return from New Orleans, yesterday afternoon, stopped over at Louisville. There he met the man's agent at Nashville, and at once determined to catch the evening train and catch some of the men who had taken the man, while he had never phased Sullivan. He generally laughed when hit. Kilrain just stood looking right up at Sullivan. He struck at him, then clinched and in an instant had him by the back. It was as clean and ugly a fall as you ever saw. Sullivan got up and laughed good-naturedly, like a young school boy. It seemed to strike him as ridiculous that such a man could be so easily and quickly, but Kilrain was never able to repeat the performance quite that easily. Sullivan was prepared for him thereafter."

Says Kilrain Was Sick.

By Telegraph to the Post-DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, July 12.—Dominick McCaffrey, Billy Madden and W. E. Hardin, R. K. Fox's representative at the fight, arrived late last night on the No. 6 O. & R. train. P. J. Sharkey, Pat. Kelly, the boxer, and Dave Holland were with McCaffrey and Madden.

Harding spoke for Stevenson and the others who had been on Kilrain. He was bitter in denouncing Kilrain, and said he had been slow and Johnson, and here I am, a little disfigured from hard work, but still in the ring." He said that Kilrain was overstrained and was not carefully handled at New Orleans, and he had to make friends with Kilrain's friends. Kilrain had to make friends with the boys in the ring, and he had no attempt to knock out Kilrain by a blow back of the ear as was expected. In the first round he did not get anybody, but he did not hit Kilrain to fight. He said: "Kilrain was sick and it was impossible for him to be in proper condition to fight, but he did not complain about it." Stevenson, the reporter, decided to accompany the two to the station. Upon arriving at the outskirts of the city, Stevenson and Muldoon left the train and boarded an outgoing train for the East to escape any chance of arrest.

In an interview with Muldoon he described his escape at Nashville as follows:

"I am a good boxer, and I am not afraid of Kilrain. He is a decent middle-weight, much less Sullivan. He weighed only 165 pounds in his ring costume. He was bad, but he certainly deserves great credit for his courage and pluck in holding out against Sullivan any length of time at all under the circumstances. He was not properly handled at New Orleans, and he had to complain himself that Mitchell had not paid proper attention to him."

He was a good boxer, and he was a decent middle-weight, much less Sullivan. He weighed only 165 pounds in his ring costume. He was bad, but he certainly deserves great credit for his courage and pluck in holding out against Sullivan any length of time at all under the circumstances. He was not properly handled at New Orleans, and he had to complain himself that Mitchell had not paid proper attention to him."

Gov. Lowry in the Ring.
JACKSON, Miss., July 12.—Gov. Lowry intends to prosecute all persons party to the offense, but gives no names at present, though it is believed the refer to the fight and officers of the Queen & Crescent are among them. The last afforded accommodation to and fed the boxers, and the railroad companies aided the party to escape over their road.

An act of 1862 imposed a penalty not exceeding $100 for causing death by prize-fighting for twelve months or both for prize-fighting. A party causing death is guilty of murder. If mayhem, the penalties are provided for. Alters and abetors are subject to a fine of not less than $100 or jail for six months, or both.

SULLIVAN SET FREE.

By a Writ of Habeas Corpus He is Taken From the Custody of Nashville Police.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 12.—When Sullivan and his backer, Johnson, were lodged in jail yesterday morning, they were not ill-treated, and a writ of habeas corpus applied for before Judge McAllister of the Circuit Court. The attorneys engaged by Sullivan and Johnson were W. H. Washington, W. G. Brien, A. G. Caldwell and V. L. Dodd, four of the best known barristers in Nashville. While the proceedings were going on Sullivan received a number of telegrams to the effect that the arrests had been made without any legal process, and that the officers had been ordered by authority.

The prisoners had committed no offense against the laws of Tennessee, neither the State nor the Federal Government.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were

the same who arrested Kilrain, and he

was released at the same time.

"The officers who arrested them were the same who arrested Kilrain, and It's astonishing! the number of you who're coming to Barr's special hosiery sale to-morrow, is. Here's what it'll be: A mixed up line of a thousand pair of ladies' fine lisle threads; there's blacks and all the colors you can think of, including the new burnt leather shades to wear with colored shoes, plain or Richelle ribbed. There are also fancy styles, pale greens, striped in black and brown, and evening shades and combinations of all the best styles; they are worth 65, 70, 80 and 85 cents a pair. Saturday's price, 48 cents. BARR'S.

An interesting bit of dry goods lore. Men's dollar Paris lace thread undershirts, to-morrow for 60c each. Also Men's extra fine spiced heel and toe, double sole burlap half hose, full regular made at 20c a pair.

The men folks think they're superior to bargain hunting, so they'll send their wives down to-morrow after these special bargains. It's the women folks who save the dimes and nickels.

We'll also sell women's fine Swiss ribbed Jersey vests at 18c each to-morrow at BARR'S.

Would you like one of the four-quart, White Mountain, triple-motion ice-cream freezers for two dollars and fifty cents? We think you would; that's the reason we'll let you have it at that price to-morrow. And a Little Giant oil stove (regular price a dollar) for 75 cents.

Did you know headquarters for Baby Carriages is at Barr's, the cheapest and the finest made. Just to show you how cheap, we'll sell a full size, canopy-top, upholstered seat carriage for $3.87 to-morrow.

We'd like to give you everything you want for nothing. We are philanthropists, we are.

We're going to give you pure silk 60 cent black Jersey gloves for 48 cents a pair to-morrow, and this is a big surprise for you, Taffeta silk gloves in all the glove colors made, at 17 cents a pair.

You see we are constantly thinking about how much money we can save you—so you'll have all the more to bring us next time.

Here's a bargain, best all silk moire sash ribbon, 7 inches, fancy edge, 67 cents a yard. BARR'S.

Boys' $2.50 suits for $1.87. Blouse, sailor and vest front styles, with kilts, skirts, in navy blue, brown, tan and other shades; plain gingham trimmed in bias plaid, very handsome little suits and very cheap—only 50c in the lot and don't forget you have only up to 1 o'clock to-morrow to buy 'em.

Barr's never show anything but the latest and best in their boys' clothing department.

Fifty dozen linen handkerchiefs, ladies' hemstitched, blocks, embroidered in black or colors, regular price is a quarter, but we've reduced them all to 16 cents each.

Barr's celebrated pint bottle best 65-cent cologne for 48 cents to-morrow.

5,000 palm leaf fans to-morrow at a cent each.

White, red or blue canvas belts go to-morrow morning at 9 cents each.

Large bar transparent glycerine soap nicely perfumed 10 cents. BARR'S.

A word in your ear—if you need anything in dry goods, be at Barr's to-morrow a.m. If you're on the lookout for bargains you can't stay away from Barr's to-morrow a.m.

If you have the interests of the family pocket-book at heart you're bound to be at Barr's to-morrow a.m. If you'll heed our advice you'll be at Barr's to-morrow a.m.

To recapitulate—Be at Barr's to-morrow a.m.

Wm. Barr Dry Goods Co., Sixth, Olive and Locust streets, St. Louis, Mo.

UNCLE SAM'S DOCKET.

TWENTY-ONE POLITICAL OFFENDERS HAVE THEIR CASES SET DOWN FOR TRIAL

Another Attempt Will Be Made by the Defendants to Secure Their Release by Attacking the Indictments.—The House of Delegates Abolishes a Soft Political Place-Clerks and Employees at City Hall Expecting Extensive Changes on Mayor Noonan's Return.

HE United States Marshals are looking for a member of the Reform School Board, who is wanted on a charge of having been too active in the interests of the Prohibitionists in November, when he was assisted in securing naturalization papers for aliens in the Court of Criminal Correction.

After his apprehension and the arrest of two other persons, who have heretofore not taken an active part in politics, the Federal investigation into election frauds will for a time give over.

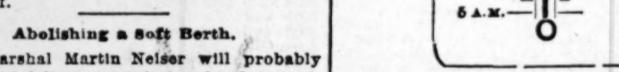

The following persons have been arrested and given bond to answer in the United States District Court on the 3d of next September, where they have been docketed:

Julius Lehman, member of the House of Delegates for the Eighteenth Ward; Adam Neiber, Sergeant-at-Arms; John C. Goss, Auditor; George H. Bluman, member of the Republican Central Committee for the Fourth Ward, arrested July 1; Henry Roenthal, July 8; Martin Neiser, City Marshal, July 5; Lophis Leo, foreman at the Anheuser-Busch Brewery, July 5; H. C. Stoddick, grocer, July 5; George Sebastian, July 5; August Weiske, Republican Central Committeeman for the Sixteenth Ward, July 5; Frank Meyer, C. A. Spathe, foreman at Cupples' broom factory; F. Timmermeister and Anton Schuetze, arrested July 5; Clem Arendes, janitor at the Four Courts; Peter A. Morrissey, ex-member of the House of Delegates for the First Ward, and Andrew Grace, conductor on Olive street cars, arrested on June 8; Geo. Bowers, of 623 Newbern Avenue, arrested on June 9; William Wissensack and James Sweeny, arrested June 10; Barney Thorman, keeper of the dog pound and Democratic City Committeeman for the Seventh Ward, arrested July 1.

Lehman, Neiber, Thorman, Morrissey, Grace, Neiber and Bluman are well-known local politicians. Some of the other persons under bond are holding insignificant places in the public offices but have not taken prominent parts in politics.

The trial will be set for September 3, but it is probable that when they are called off, some delay will be caused by the filing of demurrers.

Smith will appear for his fellow Republican Central Committeeman who have been indicted, and it is to be expected that these cases will be passed upon by the court and pronounced legal, but since then the form has been changed to facilitate the presentation of the proof.

A War in Loaded Shells.

There is quite a war among the manufacturers of loaded shells for shotguns. They are slashing each other "right and left" in order to "unload." The trouble seems to have originated in the popularity of the Rawlings Bros.' hand-loaded shells, manufactured at Eighth and Chestnut, and the price at which they are offered ($8 per 100) caused such a demand as to alarm the manufacturers of machine-loaded shells. Hence the war.

Will Raise the Crystal City. The Anchor Line boat Crystal City, which sank seventy miles below St. Louis Wednesday night, will be raised and repaired. The boat collided with a snag three miles above St. Mary's landing, the "cut-off," which was coming through to save time, as her officers thought. The boat was raised and the snag permit the trip being made. After staying in her hull on the snag the boat settled in 60 feet of water. The passengers and crew were taken off without damage. The boat lies straight.

For an outfit in the mountains or the sea shore there nothing more stylish and desirable than our fine imported English flannels, made to order. MILLS & AVENUE, Southeast corner Broadway and Pine.

A Child's Terrible Experience. Fred Runge, 5 years old, living at 2128 Franklin Avenue, was bitten by a savage bulldog in the yard of 2131 Merton street yesterday. The dog had the child by the neck and refused to let go. Albert Landmeyer ran a pitchfork through the dog's body, and the dog released the child, who was found to be terribly injured. The dog belonged to Theodore Teckenroth of 2131 Merton street.

Five Thousand Miles Tickets. Terry place, comprising over 6,000 front feet which has lately been improved with streets, sewers, water mains and granite walk at an expense of over $10,000, is already considered one of the finest buildings in the established house sites convenient to a cable railway. The property has only one side open upon the street, and the building is yet its attractions and location on the east line of Taylor avenue 500 feet north of the intersection of Taylor and Franklin. The original plan was to let the building to a familiar with what is going on in his own city, but a great many say the fourth floor is the best prospect for having it raised to meet the requirements of the locality.

It was stated in these columns a short time ago that the Terry place had been brought up with a view to letting away that the only eighteen months longer to run, and it is now reasonably assured that the Terry place will be made available to the public.

The two large rooms on the second floor were to be used for the permanent incumbents of the Terry place, and that it be submitted to the permanent incumbents on his return. The Recorder of Deeds has agreed to let the Terry place to the Terry place, submit to Mayor Noonan a full list of his appointment for approval. It is not known whether the Mayor will accept the appointment of the clerks or employees in these offices unless charges are made against the applicants personally.

The Mayor will probably return early next week.

CHEAP GAS.

An English Syndicate Seeking to Manufacture It in America.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 12.—A morning paper says: A London syndicate is in Chicago, or least some of its representatives are. They know how to make cheap gas over in the old world. They can make it 8 cents per 1,000 cubic feet in the holder. It surprises them that Americans keep on paying at $1 to $2 for what they might have at 25 cents.

This syndicate, therefore, proposes to give the American people a chance to try their hand. The syndicate will have a company with a capital of $300,000 and plants for making cheap gas over the United States, following the line of least resistance. The English syndicate, J. N. Dyer, was notified, and the English syndicate accepted the proposition made by the syndicate. The work will begin at once as soon as the English syndicate has a place to go.

HOLDEN, Mo., July 12.—The entire neighborhood here is aroused and the farmers and citizens speak very freely of lynching. R. W. Houk, a young man of 21, who was a farm hand for Joe Sidenstrecker, brutally assaulted and outraged the little 10-year-old daughter of his employer. He was spirited off to Warrensburg for safety.

The Last Dividend. John R. Lönberg, assignee of the Broadway Savings Bank, paid the last dividend of 2.4 per cent yesterday. The depositors have received $6.4 per cent on a total sum of $200. Yesterday's dividend amounted to $12,000.

After Many Years.

The Insurance Commissioner, C. P. Eller, is preparing to pay the fourth dividend to creditors of the Life Association of America. The total amount to be paid out is $70,000, and the number of creditors 7,200.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.

At the meeting of the Building Association of the New Era it was resolved that money be loaned at interest for business to be conducted in the different cities which will pay a certain royalty to the association.

The English syndicate hopes to profit by this arrangement.

Local capital is to be used under the supervision of a committee of men who have been financial aid from it. Thus the $20,000,000 company, which the English syndicate hopes to organize, is a complete success, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and a gas company, and a promoter of gas manufacturing, and its dividends will be received partly from the sale of its "rights" so made to the English syndicate, and partly made on its advances to gas companies operated under its system.

It's a small of all rights.

Mr. A. W. Dyer, reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, on July 10, reported the sale of $11,000 of ground with the building, No. 618 North Lewis, for $4,000 from Tyler R. Brant to George W. Dyer, who has been engaged in the business of a lumber company, and a gas trust, and

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,
PUBLISHED BY
THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH PULITER, President.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning.....$10 00
Six months.....3 50
Three months.....3 00
By the week (delivered by carrier).....3 00
By mail.....3 00
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
1218 Olive street.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-Office, St. Louis, Mo., as second-class matter.

DOMESTIC. Per Copy.

Eight to sixteen pages.....1 Cent
Eighteen to thirty-two pages.....2 Cents

FOREIGN. 1 Cent

Sunday Post-Dispatch.....3 Cents

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.
Editorial Rooms.....288
Business Office.....284
London Office, 82 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross.

GEN. LEW WALLACE,

AUTHOR OF

"BEN HUR,"

WILL TELL OF

LIFE IN TURKEY,

And How He Got His Idea of Christ as Pictured in His Famous Novel
in the Next

Sunday Post-Dispatch.

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1889.

Subscribers going away from the city during the summer are requested to send notice of the change of address to this office, so that the paper can be sent to them regularly.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, commencing at 8 a.m. to-day, for Missouri: Showers; warmer; south-easterly winds.

THE UNION MARKET sheds will go.

Gov. LOWRY's requisitions for prize fighters as valid as his proclamations against prize fighting.

THE VOTE on the Union Market appropriation in the House of Delegates indicates that there are exactly sixteen progressive and public-spirited members of the House.

AFTER determining to distribute her Johnstown fund among local charities, only one lower plane of disgrace and humiliation remains for Kansas City. That's annexation to Chicago, for which she is now fully qualified.

WE were rather previous in the announcement that Mr. SULLIVAN had started for the "Pen." But then we counted on Gov. LOWRY's knowing something about the laws of Mississippi. The apology is due Mr. SULLIVAN.

We have no doubt that the conference of citizens with regard to plans for the fall entertainment, to be held to-night, will result in some excellent conclusion. The ingenuity and resources of St. Louisans have never been drawn upon in vain for attractive displays.

In passing the Union Market appropriation the House of Delegates did the first duty urged upon it by the POST-DISPATCH. The House also showed a proper realization of the necessity of improving the city institutions. Now let the work of improvement be accomplished as soon as possible.

THE IMMORTALITY of THOMAS JEFFERSON's fame is assured. New York has undertaken to build a monument to his memory. When MACAULAY'S future New Zealander gets tired of viewing the ruins of St. Paul's from a broken arch of London Bridge and skips over to New York, he will be asked as soon as he lands for a subscription to New York's Jefferson and Grant monuments.

THE FEDERAL authorities appear to have found a new and effective method of catching indicted politicians. They hold the capis until the politicians get so tired waiting for the officers to arrest them that they come in and give themselves up. But while that Fabian system of criminal procedure may work in the cases of politicians with pull, we cannot advise its general adoption.

THE ACTION of Gen. LEGITIME in drafting women into his army should turn the attention of the Woman Suffragists towards Hayti as the country where their hopes of securing the rights of women may first be realized. One of the duties of full citizenship is to bear arms and it is reasonable to expect that Gen. LEGITIME having demanded the fulfillment of this duty of the women will favor giving them the right to vote. Let there be an immediate rush of Woman Suffragists to Hayti.

THE right of railroads to make what excursion rates they please within legal bounds for the G. A. R. Encampment at Milwaukee is unquestionable.

tionable. On the other hand, the veterans can stay at home if they choose, but the situation caused by the refusal of the roads to make a 1-cent rate is unfortunate. That rate has been given in the past and unless the roads can show it to be a losing rate it should be given again! The G. A. R. is entitled to especial consideration in cases of this kind. The rate should be given and the boycott lifted.

PLUTOLOGY'S DEFENSE.

It has been intimated that President HARRISON and other Republican leaders went to Woodstock rather to advertise Mr. HENRY C. BROWN's religio-political newspaper than to celebrate the Fourth of July. Certainly the orators on that occasion had another object and seemed to be all charged with the task of glorifying the men and methods of the present as far superior to anything 1776 could boast.

SENATOR HISCOCK especially labored hard to silence the "pessimism" that can see any evil or danger in the increasing luxury and concentration of wealth and power in the hands of the few. Unable to deny the facts and obliged to admit that the direction of great wealth and material forces may be, and doubtless is, used as a power for oppression and the wrecking of a plutocratic class, which tends more and more to direct the forces of society, to subdue the press and even the pulpit, and to control the management of political parties, the results of elections, the action of legislative bodies and the course of public administration. The real peril at present comes from the fact that a public policy has been adopted in the past, and is still maintained, which involves the Washington avenue division, and will extend it over every foot of its track just as soon as it can obtain the privilege to do so from the Municipal Assembly. The next companies to fall into line in the use of the overhead-wire system will be those of which Mr. John Scullin is President, and the probabilities are that he will enter into contracts for the Washington avenue division, and will extend it over every foot of its track just as soon as it can obtain the privilege to do so from the Municipal Assembly. The next companies to fall into line in the use of the overhead-wire system will be those of which Mr. John Scullin is President, and the probabilities are that he will enter into contracts for the Washington avenue division, and will BROADWAY LINE. As a result of this test the company yesterday placed an order for a number of cars to be placed on the line immediately, and has also decided to extend the overhead-wire system over as much of its road as it can under its charter. As a result of this also the Lindell Hallway Co. is now erecting an experimental line of the Sprague overhead system on the western end of its Clouston avenue division, and the company is so confident of the success of this that it has contracted for the erection of a line on the western end of the Washington avenue division, and will be guided by the appearance of the cars.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

more than the cost of the lines.

It has about 300 miles of track, 2,000

cars and 11,000 horses. Under the privilege

all its affairs would be forgotten and never

again heard of, but the unexpected always

happens and is certainly did in this case.

The Broadway line is the

biggest one in the world.

Its action shows what has been done

</

ELEVATED RAILROAD.

ITS BEAUTIES AND BLESSINGS AS PICTURED BY THE NEW YORK PRESS.

From the New York Times, March 22, '89.

The Manhattan Railway magnates who called on Mayor Grant yesterday did not succeed in impressing him with the idea that because they had built the elevated roads to which they are constantly subjected by the hirings of the company. This was never so prominent as it has been since the number of suits for damages to property began to multiply against the company. The detectives, of whom there are several, including two women, appear to be an auxiliary force to the law department, for whose assistance they are employed ostensibly to find evidence for the company in these damage cases. Until recently the detective force was supplemented by two general detective agencies, one at 71 Broadway, the other at Park Row; but with the failure of the companies to work its chancy bluff against the lawyers representing the property owners, one of them has discharged and has since gone out of business.

Good for Mayor Grant.

From the New York Herald, March 22, '89.

The Mayor's office was invaded yesterday, not exactly by the Goths and Vandals, but by the representatives of Jay Gould and his elevated roads.

The conversation was rich, racy, sometimes witty, and all the time interesting. The invaders pleaded pathetically for an extension of the "L" system, but His Honor was as inexcusable as the statue of Lincoln on Union Square.

They seemed to think that Battery Park and City Hall Park and a boulevard or two from Sixty-fifth street to Kingsbridge might be about all they would need for the present.

At any time they should happen to want the rest of New York, why he had a dispensation that their native modesty will not deter them.

Mrs. Crews was once turned over to them.

When the sun was up at 254, Her the fact that she was a lady.

S. Clements at streets, saying that she was

and telephoned result that she

Mr. Crews was one of the

they took her third story

in the house.

Harris having

by some lady

good running

the hill road,

and was out of the alarm

all day long,

not avail,

and with the heart of all concerned ones.

The company

where it was expressing a desire to go to the "L" in

"Just to see

I can't live. I must Elevated Roads and the Parks.

From the New York World, April 10, 1889.

The impudence of the managers of the elevated railway system affords matter for continual interest and astonishment to the people of New York. Their recent attempt to condemn the Battery Park in spite of the opposition of their demands by every authorized organ of public opinion indicates that they do not mean to stop at trifles. It is, of course, characteristic of corporations, which are, by the nature of the case, much more shameless than the individuals who compose them, that when an inch is given to them they will strive after an ell. The roads were built in order to meet a very urgent demand for rapid transit, and the use of the public streets was voted to their project as an encouragement to provide what it was feared could not be provided otherwise. The consequences have followed that were to be expected. The corporation has absolutely denied responsibility for any damage caused in applying light and air to the lower stories of houses that border them. They have built stations outside of their structure, and they use some miles of the public streets as places of storage for carts out of use, which they should be compelled to store at their own expense. The consequence of this is that they injure the premises, and is conducting a business of his own upon the premises, the only inducement there could be for parting with his property would be a fancy figure. And it often occurs in order to get rid of his pestiferous customer the owner ready and willing to sell, his object is defeated; for then the property is taken for nothing. Mr. Haggan, his complainant until he placed his complaint until the judges had decided in his favor.

Concerning the trouble Haggan said:

LODGE NOTICE.

ST. LOUIS LODGE, No. 5, I.O.O.F., will hold next regular meeting on Tuesday, July 16, at 8 p.m. Triplets. Visiting members cordially invited. J. O. STUFT, D.G.A.O. Recording Secretary.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—Position to earn in the city for cigars & goods in grocery lines; will work on commission. Address K. H. this office.

Miscellaneous.

THE Sunday Post-Dispatch will secure you the best of help for 5¢ per line.

WANTED—Young man wishes sit in wholesale house; 10 years service in retail store; references. Address H. D. this office.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

Book-keepers.

BARNES' SHORTHAND
College, 404 Olive st.—Take elevator. Situations procured all pupils when competent.

Clerks and Salesmen.

If you want work, advertise in the Sunday Post-Dispatch.

WANTED—Six live salmons to sell Consolo Long Havana all tobacco cigarettes. Room 409, 210 M. St. W. Tel. 220-08.

WANTED—Drug clerk, competent, German and English; single; salary $30 per month. Schmidt Brothers, Evansville, Ind.

MARTIN & HAYWARD'S
Short and Business College, 618 and 620 Olive st. Established 1878. Summer school.

The Trades.

WANTED—20 trunk shippers; apply at once. P. G. Murphy, 52 and Vine st.

WANTED—Stone masons for carving. Marcus L. Smith, 1000 Locust st. Tel. 220-08.

WANTED—a good watchmaker, a young man desired; state wages, also ref. Ad. M. 11, this office.

WANTED—Good machinist by the Fort Scott, Kan. office.

WANTED—Three men, mechanics, under $100.00 a week. Central Union Brass Co., 223 N. 1st St.

WANTED—a good blacksmith. Apply Schlesinger & Bowker, Lumber Co., foot of St. Louis av.

WANTED—Yates, Beards, Neb., or W. H. Tyler, Lincoln, Neb.

Cooks.

THE Sunday Post-Dispatch will secure you the best of help for 5¢ per line.

WANTED—Night cook; call at once. 1331 Pine st.

Laborers.

WANTED—Colored laborers at 2301 Kosciusko st.

WANTED—Five names and five laborers at 18th and Grand st.

WANTED—Team at Jefferson av. and Walnut st. 50¢ a load. R. Brown.

WANTED—Team to haul macadam; steady work; 50¢ a load.

WANTED—25 team horses of 4th and Washington av.; long team. John J. Brown.

WANTED—30 men; $1.75 a day, and 20 teams on long team. John J. Whalen.

WANTED—To rent shovels on hill. Apply at Hydrex, Free Brick Co., King's highway.

WANTED—Teams to mow morning on cabin road, east of Cabanne av., in Vandeventer place, M. McElroy.

WANTED—Men with shovels and carts on Cabin Hill av., and Shenandoah st. To-morrow morning, Barney Burns.

Boys.

WANTED—Boy to work in restaurant nights. 1321 Pine st.

WANTED—A strong boy at once. Apply 522 Pine room.

WANTED—First-class soda water boy at Addison's, 700 Olive st.

WANTED—For setting job lines and distributing. W. Johann-Palmer Printing Co., 913 Pine st.

WANTED—A stout boy to attend to two horses and a pony. Apply at 20th and Market.

WANTED—A first-class colored boy with good references, who can take care of horses; inquire Saturday, the 13th, between 8 and 9 a.m. 2223 Dodge st.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—A helper on home-made candles. W. Fraser.

WANTED—A young German man to do general work in a grocery store. Inquire at 3200 Park av.

WANTED—A stout young man, in confederate uniform; with a little experience preferred. 3130 East St. W. yard and kitchen; German preferred. 2203 Olive st.

WANTED—25 will buy the W. L. Douglas and James Means 5¢ show at Hill's shoe house, and Franklin.

WANTED—Good colored man to attend to horses. Apply Saturday, 9 to 11 a.m., 2228 Dodge st.

WANTED—A young man who speaks German, well educated in town among families, to solicit orders for cakes, etc. Apply at 20th and Locust st. 2nd floor, room 5.

WANTED—$2 weekly representative male or household necessity; sell at sight; no peddling; salary promptly and expenses advanced; sample car. W. F. C. & Co., 1004 Locust st.

WANTED—Standard Silverware Co., Boston, Mass.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALES.

Teachers, Companions, Etc.

WANTED—A young lady wants a situation as companion to a lady or invalid, or as nurse companion, has no objection to country or to travel; references. Address F. 10, this office.

Housekeepers.

WANTED—A young widow of 21, and no income, desires a place as housekeeper. Address 12, this office.

General Housework.

STOVE REPAIRS!
For every stove or range made in the United States to be had at A. G. Brainerd, 210 Locust st.

Cooks, Etc.

WANTED—A situation as cook in private family. Address 1st man in first-class family. Add 2025 Franklin av., in rear.

HELP WANTED—FEMALES.

Nurses.

WANTED—an elderly nurse to have charge of her. Address O. 11, this office.

General housework.

WANTED—Position as stenographer and typewriter or bookkeeper; has had experience; good references. Address F. 10, this office.

FURNITURE LOANS.

WANTED—A first-class man in first-class family. Add 2025 Franklin av., in rear.

FINANCIAL.

WANTED—Good cook for general housework. 1901 Olive st.

WANTED—a girl for general housework. 1618 Chestnut st.

WANTED—Girl to do general work for family of three. 525 Chestnut st.

WANTED—a competitive girl for house and dining-room work. Apply at 20th and Locust st.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Apply at once. 2010 Locust st.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; must be good cook and assist with washing. 2631 Chestnut st.

WANTED—a girl 14 to 16 years of age to assist with housework and children. Call at 2631 Franklin av.

WANTED—a good German girl for general housework; good, steady place and pay. 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—a neat young girl for general housework. Address 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—Work without washing or ironing. 2011 Locust st.

WANTED—a good willing girl for general housework; good, steady place and pay. 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—A good willing girl for general housework; good, steady place and pay. 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—A good cook and assist with washing. 2631 Chestnut st.

WANTED—An elderly nurse to have charge of her. Address O. 11, this office.

GENERAL.

WANTED—Position to earn in the Sunday Post-Dispatch.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. 1901 Olive st.

WANTED—a girl for general housework. 1618 Chestnut st.

WANTED—Girl to do general work for family of three. 525 Chestnut st.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Apply at once. 2010 Locust st.

WANTED—a girl for general housework; must be good cook and assist with washing. 2631 Chestnut st.

WANTED—a good willing girl for general housework; good, steady place and pay. 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—a neat young girl for general housework. Address 1017 N. 16th st.

WANTED—Work without washing or ironing. 2011 Locust st.

FINANCIAL.

FOR SALE—in answering advertisements used this head mention the Post-Dispatch.

O. C. CHEENEY & CO., Kansas City, Mo., buy and loan money on life insurance policies.

HELP WANTED—FEMALES.

Dressmakers and Seamstresses.

WANTED—Girl to learn dressmaking. $250.

WANTED—Experienced dressmaker; apply once. 615 Olive st.

WANTED—Six good shirt-makers to work on special orders in our factory. Blumstein & Schwartz, 712 N. 16th st.

Cooks, Etc.

WANTED—A girl to cook wash and iron. 3917 Delmar st.

WANTED—a woman to cook, wash and iron; references required. 2856 Pine st.

WANTED—A woman to cook, wash and iron, small family. 264 Washington av.

WANTED—Two girls or a woman for cooking and washing. Apply 1314 N. Leffingwell av.

WANTED—A girl to cook two meals for four; no washing. Apply 1314 N. Leffingwell av.

WANTED—A good German cook; city reference required. Apply at 20th and Locust st.

WANTED—A girl to cook wash and iron. Apply at once, with references. 2604 Dayton st.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—A girl to cook wash and iron. 3917 Delmar st.

WANTED—a woman to cook, wash and iron; references required. 2856 Pine st.

WANTED—A woman to cook, wash and iron, small family. 264 Washington av.

WANTED—Two girls or a woman for cooking and washing. Apply 1314 N. Leffingwell av.

WANTED—A girl to cook two meals for four; no washing. Apply 1314 N. Leffingwell av.

WANTED—A good German cook; city reference required. Apply at 20th and Locust st.

WANTED—A girl to cook wash and iron. Apply at once, with references. 2604 Dayton st.

PERSONAL.

WANTED—Nellie and Rosalind will call Monday.

PERSONAL—Am all right and anxious to see you. K. H. 11th st.

PERSONAL—Lohengrin: Letter at this office for you. Eliza.

PERSONAL—L. C.: Will meet you this Friday evening same time and place. L.

PERSONAL—Friends demand payment of garden night send bill to me. 10th and Locust st.

PERSONAL—Mrs. Lyons': Inst. Scientific, magnetic and baths of all kinds of bath; female assistants; piano; parlor; heat. 1120 Pine st.

PERSONAL—Nellie and Rosalind will call Monday.

PERSONAL—

